

ComputerSor

Foxborough State Hospital Is Once Again Home to Health Care Services

Last year, Caritas Norwood Hospital signed a 12,000-sq-ft medical and office lease at VinCo Properties Inc.'s Foxboro, Mass.-based Chestnut Green, a restoration of Greek revival architecture at the former site of Foxboro State Hospital. The centerpiece of this mixed-use residential, commercial and recreational development is VinCo Properties and Abrams Properties, LLC's joint creation, Chestnut Green Apartments, 55 luxury condo-style units whose residents now enjoy convenient access to health care.

Chestnut Green, former site of Foxborough State Hospital, now features luxury condo-style living. "The best part about Chestnut Green Apartments is its proximity to just about anything a resident might need, including even health care," said Matthew Abrams, principal of Abrams Properties. "Caritas Norwood Hospital's offices at the surrounding Chestnut Green property just adds to the development's level of convenience for anyone who works or lives there."

People who work or live in and around the Chestnut Green community are now within walking distance of primary care physicians for routine check-ups and unexpected illnesses. The Caritas Norwood Hospital offices at Chestnut Green specialize in family medicine, primary care, obstetrics and gynecology, and endocrinology and feature a Multiple Sclerosis center.

Close to Routes 1, 95, 140 and 495, the Chestnut Green Apartments are just nine minutes from the MBTA commuter rail, with service to Providence and Boston suburbs. Chestnut Green itself is a 93-acre complex replete with office space, open-air retail, single-family homes and condominiums, as well as 40 acres of recreational fields including basketball courts, a softball diamond, soccer fields, jogging trails, a children's playground and a sand volleyball court. The suburban community offers the nearby Shops at Chestnut Green, a Stop & Shop Supermarket, Dunkin' Donuts, Walgreens, Reliable Dry Cleaners and much more.

Residential units are available from $1,150 to $2,900 a month, with limited time pre-leasing specials, including one to two months free rent as well as reduced application fees and security deposits on select units. Chestnut Green Applications are available online (chestnutgreenapts.com). For information regarding in-person viewings of these Foxboro apartments, prospective tenants and other interested parties may call 1-877-298-APTS.

